and differences are celebrated

Why do Playgrounds Matter?

Play is a critical part of the social, emotional, cognitive and physical development of every child. Unfortunately, the vast majority of playgrounds deny children with disabilities and critical illnesses the opportunity for exercise, entertainment, and social interactions which other children enjoy. In fact, only a small percentage of fully accessible playgrounds exist within our nation and these are insufficient to serve 43 million Americans with disabilities.

An Inclusive Playground is specifically designed to remove physical and social barriers so ALL children, with and without disabilities and/or critical illnesses, can play side by side with their peers and families.

The Vision

Peyton & Parker Hoffman brothers, were born 14 months apart with Pelizaeus Merzbacher Disease, a neurological disease that affects the central nervous system. During their years in school the boys set a standard for inclusion. They were wheelchair dependent, incredibly smart, and very aware of their surroundings. They had a way of pulling everyone into them by just flashing a smile.

They were very present in the community. They were Cub Scouts, honorary members of the youth football team, and hosted a yearly haunted house that was very popular. Peyton unexpectedly passed away, March 19, 2010 at the age of 11. Parker remained a guiding light for his parents and older sister. Continuing to attend school, playing (with help) in the middle school band. He was an important part of the development of the York High School Animal Science Lab, and was on the adapted bowling team. He graduated in May of 2018. After a valiant battle with kidney issues and respiratory illnesses Parker 19, passed away March 16, 2019.

Lane McDaniel, was born premature only weighing 3 lbs. After a month in the NICU, he came home healthy. At home, became lethargic and was transported back to the hospital. Lane had contracted late onset Group Beta Strep from a bad blood stick. Later causing meningitis and lifelong injury to his brain. Lane attended Catholic School and was extremely active with his two sisters and parents. He loved the outdoors and being in a wheelchair did not stop his family from going on bike rides, gator rides, hunting, fishing, going to church and community events. He inspired other children and adults to help others and be present. He touched everyone he met. Lane passed away in his sleep on March 15, 2014 at the age of 8. The family continues Lane's legacy by giving back with Living in the Right Lane, a non-profit that reaches out to families facing challenges related to a child with a disability or illness. Love, Admire, Nurture, Everyday

We are excited to bring a very unique all-inclusive playground to York, Nebraska. A small group of parents, public leaders, educators, and individuals with relationships with children who have been affected with disabilities have spent countless hours coming up with a Nebraska outdoor theme. Picking each piece of equipment with very specific reasons. Considering all types of disabilities and how they affect children and adults the same. The name was chosen because two sets of parents on the committee, have had sons with disabilities, and set a standard of raising them in a way that promotes inclusion in every way. And has inspired other such parents to do the same. Together they have come up with an incredible vision for this amazing playground. This playground will enhance this community for years to come!
