Why do playgrounds matter?

Play is a critical part of the social, emotional, cognitive and physical development of every child. Unfortunately, the vast majority of playgrounds deny children with disabilities and critical illnesses the opportunity for exercise, entertainment and social interactions which other children enjoy. In fact, only a small percentage of fully accessible playgrounds exist within our nation and these are insufficient to serve 43 million Americans with disabilities.

An Accessible Playground is specifically designed to remove physical and social barriers so ALL children, with and without disabilities and/or critical illnesses, can play side by side with their peers and families.

To be located in Steubenville, Ohio at Jim Wood Park this playground will be an Unlimited Play accessible playground — a place where limitations will be forgotten and differences are celebrated!

THE MISSION

The JEFFCO Community Playground in Steubenville, Ohio is a collaborative project of the City of Steubenville, Steubenville Parks & Recreation, and the Jefferson County Board of Developmental Disabilities. Together, we are committed to creating a welcoming and inclusive space where people of all abilities can play, connect, and thrive side by side. This playground will reflect our community's shared belief that everyone deserves access to joyful play, meaningful connection, and a place where they truly belong.

THE VISION

We envision the JEFFCO Community Playground as a vibrant, fully inclusive destination inspired by the historic Steuben Fort—where children and families of all abilities can explore, imagine, and play together. Rooted in the guiding principle of Building a Community of Belonging, this space will honor Steubenville's rich history while shaping a future grounded in accessibility, connection, and shared joy. Through inclusive design and strong community partnership, the playground will be a place where no one is left out and everyone is welcomed to gather, grow, and experience the power of play—together.

Help us in creating a playground that everyone can enjoy.

Your kind contributions will provide EVERY child and adult, regardless of their abilities, the chance to enjoy the delights and advantages of play. This inclusive playground will positively influence Steubenville and its surrounding communities.
